

DAIRY GOAT

Name: _____ Club: _____

Date	Leaders Initials
------	---------------------

Guidelines for Project Proficiency Award

BEGINNING

- | | | |
|---|-------|-------|
| 1. Be able to name and recognize the 6 breeds. | _____ | _____ |
| 2. Know what "recorded" and "unrecorded" means. | _____ | _____ |
| 3. Know the parts of a dairy goat as shown in the 4-H project book. | _____ | _____ |
| 4. Explain what feeds a doe needs as a kid, as a bred doe, and when in lactation. | _____ | _____ |
| 5. Show receipts, papers, or calendar, etc., covering a 90 day period for: feed, medicine, vet bills, breeding fees, equipment, etc.. | _____ | _____ |
| 6. Follow a recommended program for vaccinations and worming. | _____ | _____ |
| 7. Show how to take a temperature and know what ins normal for your goat. | _____ | _____ |
| 8. Know how to tell if your animal is ill and when you should call a vet. | _____ | _____ |
| 9. Learn how to trim hoofs and do so regularly. Explain the tools used. | _____ | _____ |
| 10. Explain why a goat needs to be clipped, washed and brushed. | _____ | _____ |
| 11. Provide housing and fencing for your animals. | _____ | _____ |
| 12. Exhibit at 3 shows ("classifying" could substitute for 1 show). | _____ | _____ |
| 13. Enter Showmanship at least one time. | _____ | _____ |
| 14. Memorize the general categories and mannary system of the ADGA scorecard. | _____ | _____ |
| 15. Participate in the disbudding, tattooing and castrating of your kids. | _____ | _____ |
| 16. Utilize your goats milk. | _____ | _____ |
| 17. Milk and keep milk production records for a goat one day a week for 12 weeks. | _____ | _____ |
| 18. Share with another person a skill you have learned pertaining to your goat project. | _____ | _____ |
| 19. Give a demonstration at County Field Day. | _____ | _____ |

Leaders Signature: _____ Date: _____