POLICY

Policy Highlight of the Month

Code of Conduct

The 4-H Youth Development Program strives to offer youth participants a meaningful, engaging, safe and healthy environment. Youth are expected to abide by the 4-H Code of Conduct at all times, including during events and activities outside of the club and county. Similarly, there is an expectation that adult volunteers adhere to a volunteer code of conduct (<http://www.ca4h.org/policy/chapter6/index.asp#IV>) to maintain program coherence and consistency. In addition, adult volunteers have roles and responsibilities that help to govern their actions. Some of the roles include:

- implementing the programs
- providing logistical support for meetings and events
- directing the educational service to youth

Adult volunteers also are integral to maintaining community relationships and being a conduit for youth to larger community resources.

Parents and other adults also play a significant role in the success of the program. They provide transportation to club meetings, events and activities. In some cases, they serve as an enrolled resource leader to be a chaperone for camp or other overnight events. Like volunteers, they must agree to a set of behavioral guidelines to attend or participate in these 4-H events. While the consequences for non-compliance will not necessarily result in a youth's dismissal from the program, it could have an adverse affect on the overall learning environment of the club and its activities. We encourage all parents to understand their role with the program. For example, parents are expected to:

- Treat others in a courteous, respectful manner demonstrating ethical behaviors appropriate to a positive role model for youth.
- Abide by policies and guidelines of the California 4-H Youth Development Program state and county 4-H programs.
- Obey all laws of the locality, state, and nation, including those related to use of illegal substances, or use of firearms.
- Recognize that verbal, sexual, physical abuse, and/or neglect of youth is unacceptable either within or outside the 4-H Youth Development Program.
- Treat animals humanely and teach 4-H youth to provide appropriate animal care.

- Operate machinery, vehicles, and other equipment in a safe and responsible manner, and only with a valid operator's license and the legally required insurance coverage.
- Handle fundraising and finances in an ethical manner according to the policies and guidelines of the 4-H Youth Development Program.
- Do not consume alcohol while responsible for youth in 4-H activities nor allow 4-H youth participants under your supervision to consume alcohol or illegal substances.
- Deliver your child on time for events and meetings, and pick-up at the agreed upon time.
- Avoid the use of obscene, impolite, and/or discriminatory language at any 4-H activity or where youth are present.

CLUB

- Learning About Water Pollution
By: Alexa Sutter, PVP 4-H

My 4-H Club volunteered to help at the Rolling Hills City Celebration. I got to help at a booth that taught people about water pollution. There was a big model of a watershed and the crowd got to interact by making it "rain" on the community using spray bottles and this showed how pollution runs into our water supply.

My friend and I who are in the same 5th grade class were both helping at the booth and we just happened to be learning about the same thing in school. Later, we arranged to give the same presentation at our school. Not only did we help our community but we also got to help our fellow students!!

- Buddy Walk
by Kristy Okamoto,
Pomona Valley 4-H

On October 17, 2010 members of Pomona Valley 4-H Club attended The Buddy Walk in Upland to support fellow club member, Julius Treadwell, and many other's who have Down Syndrome. The Buddy walk was from 9am-3pm that consisted of several functions such as booths, live entertainment, games, refreshments, Aquarium of the Pacific exhibit truck, and a one-mile walk. Our club ran a booth that informed others about 4-H and helped visitors use stamps, color in pictures, and make paper frogs. It was a great experience and our entire club enjoyed supporting children and adults with Down Syndrome.

- State Leaders Forum 2010

Dawn Fuller, 4-H Program Coordinator

The 4-H State Leaders Forum was held on November 5-7, at the Asilomar Conference Center in breathtaking Pacific Grove. The South Section Leaders' Council (which includes Los Angeles) was charged with putting on the popular annual event. Dee Keese of the Palos Verdes Peninsula 4-H Club, Noel Keller of Pomona Valley 4-H Club, and Judylynn Pelling of the Eagle Rock/Highland Park 4-H Club were committee members and Los Angeles County representatives for the event. They did a phenomenal job!

The theme for the conference was Upgrade! S.E.T. Your System! Go! Leaders had many informative sessions to choose from. Attendees were presented with many handy hints for leading projects, new and exciting activities for youth, community service ideas, strategies for growing clubs and the basic running of clubs. Other topics included were: the International Exchange Program, fundraising basics for clubs, planning and preparing educational displays, overall positive youth development, digital photography, water conservation, “train the trainer” babysitting courses, jewelry making, knitting, natural history of Asilomar’s landscape, hikes, cardboard automation, science, engineering and technology activities, engineering challenges, on-line tools for 4-H Clubs, livestock judging, and much more.

Guest speakers, staff and volunteers led lively discussions and workshops about a variety of interesting and useful topics that leaders can really use throughout the 4-H year. Many volunteers find the State Leaders’ Forum to be a great opportunity for “re-charging” and networking with other volunteers while having a fun and relaxing weekend, in a beautiful setting.

Dee Keese provided several interesting sessions on CPR. Judylynn Pelling led a workshop on “Handmade Little Books.” Dawn Fuller, 4-H Program Coordinator, provided a lighthearted seminar on “Working with Special Volunteers.” Noel Keller designed the pins for the entire event that volunteers were gifted upon arrival. Susan Bernardo and Brooke Ali of Encino Oaks 4-H Club attended the State Leaders’ Forum for the first time and will be sponsored for $100 each by the County Council for their trip.

Dee Keese was awarded the prestigious “Golden Clover Award” during the festivities wherein she received an honorary medallion and a $500 cash prize, which she kindly donated to her club.

Over the course of the weekend, many of the attendees seemed to feel a sense of camaraderie, polished-up on skills for running clubs more efficiently, made new friends, were inspired to lead ground-breaking projects, re-vamp projects that have been around for a long time, rested, took beach-front jaunts and were reminded of why they started volunteering for 4-H in the first place!

We hope that many of you may consider attending this lovely event next year! To find out more, go here: <http://www.ca4h.org/conference/slf/>. The South Section Leaders’ Council is also charged with coordinating Sectional Field Day this year, and could really use some extra help! To volunteer, or find out more information, please contact Noel Keller at: Noel_Keller@hmc.edu or Dee Keese at: swimdude64@earthlink.net.

- 48th District Schools' Agriculture & Nutrition Fair & Ag Day LA
Dawn Fuller, 4-H Program Coordinator

With its deep agricultural roots and continued agriculture education, 4-H, the Los Angeles County Farm Bureau and the 48th District Agricultural Association have a natural relationship with the common goal of promoting agriculture learning in the community. The 48th District Agricultural Association is hosting its annual Schools' Agriculture and Nutrition Fair and have invited 4-H youth to participate.

The fair theme is "Eat Your Colors" and will take place April 12-16, 2011. It will be held at the Pomona Fairplex (1101 W. McKinley Avenue, Pomona 91768). Youth from Kindergarten through 12th Grade are eligible to participate. There are a wide range of creative categories youth can enter projects in, including: flowerbeds, vegetable gardens, murals, displays, sawhorses, birdhouses, photography, insects, bread-making, sewing, leather craft, nutrition, science, wall hanging, knitting, recycling and much more.

The deadline for entry forms is February 1, 2011. To learn more about the fair, various entries or register on-line go to: www.agfair.org. There are many cash prizes and honors available. What a grand opportunity for 4-Hers to participate in a local fair that really promotes agriculture learning. There are many projects that youth can showcase at this event. Let's show the community that 4-H is where it's at!

On April 13-14, 2011, the Los Angeles County Farm Bureau and its partners are hosting their 10th Annual Ag Day LA Celebration-- also at the Pomona Fairplex (events are simultaneous). Youth are invited to attend rotating sessions covering many fun and intriguing aspects of nutrition, water conservation, bees, livestock, agriculture and much more. There will be a live sheep-shearing demonstration, livestock showcases, a live bee display, and all youth are invited to come and learn about how agriculture affects us all! If you attend this event, just go by the Big Red Barn, and visit the Schools' Agriculture and Nutrition Fair at the same time! To sign-up to attend or find out more information, go here: <http://www.agdayla.com/index.html>

Los Angeles County 4-H is a proud supporter of both events, and last year, Computer Specialist, Roy Hillstock, created a lovely video of Ag Day LA which can be viewed here:

http://celosangeles.ucdavis.edu/4H_Youth_Development_Programs/Ag_Day_LA_video.htm

You may also contact Dawn Fuller for more information on attending, or even volunteering at (323) 260-3859 or at dafuller@ucdavis.edu.

- New Leaders' Training
Dawn Fuller, 4-H Program Coordinator

Let's start the new year with new volunteers! There will be a New Leaders' Training offered on Saturday, January 15, 2011, following the County Council Meeting. The training will be from Noon to 2 p.m., and will be held at the UC Cooperative Extension LA County 4-H Office (4800 East Cesar E. Chavez Avenue, LA 90022). If you have potential leaders interested in volunteering for Los Angeles County 4-H, now is the time to get them fingerprinted! Only those who have successfully cleared fingerprinting are eligible to attend the training. Please send all fingerprinting requests to:

- Tis' the Season -- for Bugs!
Dawn Fuller, 4-H Program Coordinator

With the holidays quickly approaching, surely you must be thinking fondly of all the great bugs of the world-- King Arthur the Stick Insect, Bubba Jones the Caddis Fly, Madison Brown the May Fly or Earl the Esteemed Ear Wig...NOT! The holidays may not remind us of insects, but there are new and exciting resources available for those who are involved in an Entomology Project, or would like to be. Instead of being frightened of spiders, slugs and wasps—study them!

<http://ucanr.org/news/?uid=1326&ds=191>

UC Davis students along with professor James R. Carey, and UC Davis Forensic Entomologist, Robert Kimsey, have created a handy on-line guide with 11 video presentation clips (under ten minutes long), to start your own Entomology Project. Topics covered are: Hand Collecting, Using an Aspirator, Ground Collecting, Aquatic, Using Nets, Killing, Pinning, Point Mounting, Labeling Specimens, Spreading and Storage/Display.

This UC Davis Entomology Series is just one of the many thrilling resources provided by UC Davis, and Los Angeles County 4-H is thankful for the “Buggy Tips!”

- Outreach Round-Up
Dawn Fuller, 4-H Program Coordinator

Los Angeles County 4-H contributed an article to the “From Farm to Fork” newsletter of the 48th District Agricultural Association (previously featured in Clover Notes on the history and lore of scarecrows). The recent version and the 48th District Agricultural Association newsletter “From Farm to Fork” can be viewed or you can sign up to receive the newsletter here:

http://agfair.org/newsletter/48thNewsNov-Dec_10web.pdf

<http://agfair.org/>

On Monday, November 29, 2010, thanks to Program Manager and Master Gardener Coordinator, Yvonne Savio, 3,000 outreach letters requesting volunteers for specific clubs were sent out. The response has been phenomenal! Leaders will be contacted by scores of prospective volunteers, and we ask that you respond to their inquiries in a timely manner, and CC the 4-H office when possible. Let's grow our volunteer base!

In the upcoming months, Los Angeles County 4-H is going to be creating and implementing a new special targeted outreach plan. Youth and adults will be encouraged to invite acquaintances to club meetings to find out more about 4-H. Start thinking ahead of some friends who you think would benefit from learning more about citizenship, leadership and life skills, as well as adults who would bring great experiences to the youth in our program.

- We wish you a happy holiday and all the best!
Dr. Rachel Surls, Dr. Keith Nathaniel, Charlene Moore, Roy Hillstock, Dawn Fuller and Antonette Pavia
