UCCE GLENN COUNTY 4-H FASHION REVUE & QUILT SHOW RESULTS

There were 48 participants for the annual University of California Cooperative Extension Glenn County 4-H Fashion Revue & Quilt Show held at Hamilton High School in Hamilton City, reports UCCE Youth Development 4-H Program Representative Jamie Marron. The “Alice in Wonderland” theme event was enjoyed by all who participated and attended.

Lucia Salinas of the Lake 4-H Club was chosen as the top score and gold medallion winner from the Junior Division, and Ashley Pinedo of the Lake 4-H Club was chosen as the gold medallion winner and Intermediate Princess from the Intermediate Division of the traditional category. Lucia and Ashley also received sewing machines for their top scores.

Primary members who participated in the traditional category were: Gracie Cloyd and Carlee Wilkins of the Schaffert 4-H Club, Lauren Richards of the Plaza 4-H Club, and Maddee Baker, Makenna Baker, Eden Baldrige, Clarie Boles, Aubree Eddy, Allie Humphreys, Brendon James, Emily Karle, Rachel Kurth, Paulina Martins, Alina Pinedo, Bruno Salinas, Jack Schager, Luke Schager, Conley Toney, Lauren Watson, and Delaney Weigel all of the Lake 4-H Club.

Gold Medal Junior Division winners were Hannah Cloyd of the Schaffert 4-H Club and Zoey James, Kaitlyn Kampmann, and Alison Pinedo of the Lake 4-H Club. Silver Medal Junior Division winners were Thea Baldrige and Emma Canalia of the Plaza 4-H Club, Kenzie Eddy, Hannah Groppi, Franchesca Martins, Hannah Martins, and Carina Olmos of the Lake 4-H Club, Carlee Felix of the Clover 4-H Club and Elizabeth McIntyre of the Schaffert 4-H Club.

A gold medal was won by Paisley Weigel of the Lake 4-H Club for the Intermediate Division. Silver Medal Intermediate Division winners were Nicole Corporon of the Orland 4-H Club, Daria Danley of the Clover 4-H Club and Viviana Olmos of the Lake 4-H Club.

The Intermediate Division Quilting winner was Daria Danley of the Clover 4-H Club. Daria received a gold medallion and a sewing machine for the top score. Lauren Richards from the Plaza 4-H Club was the Primary member participating in the Quilting Division.

The Junior Division Quilting winner was Ciara Fleming of the Plaza 4-H Club; she also received a gold medallion. Annie Belter of the Plaza 4-H Club and Allison Dalrymple of the Willows 4-H Club were the other Junior Division participants; both girls received a silver medal. Meggie Cole and Julia Medina of the Willows 4-H Club also participated in the Intermediate Division; both girls received a silver medal.

There were additional categories for our 4-H members to participate in at the “Alice in Wonderland” Fashion Revue event: Consumer Science Purchased, Costume Challenge, and “Make it for Others”. Eden Baldrige of the Plaza 4-H Club participated in the Primary Division for the Consumer Science Purchased category, and Thea Baldrige, a junior member of the Plaza 4-H Club, won a gold medal in the Consumer Science Purchased category. Clarissa Wetz, a senior from the Lake 4-H Club, won a gold medal in the Costume Challenge. Carlee Felix of the Clover 4-H got to show off what she made for the “Make it for Others” category, a non-judged category.

Katie McDaniel, the 4-H Vice President of Home Economics, was the chairperson for the event. She was assisted by Lea Eddy, Corey Richards and Jamie Marron. Judges for this event were Tammy Tice, Ramona Blankenship, Karrie Silveira, Mary Spooner Danley, Susan Shipplehoute, Carol McKinney, and April James. We wish to thank all the leaders, Glenn County All Star and BLAST Teams, judges and parents who helped at this event, as well as Hamilton High School for the use of their facilities.
