

You're invited to our first-ever
Farmer-Rancher Open House

At the UC Cooperative Extension (UCCE)/Farm Advisor Office
in Auburn, CA,
Thursday, December 13 from 4-7 p.m.

Come and meet other producers! Learn about upcoming UCCE programs for farmers and ranchers in Placer and Nevada Counties. Get updated on current and future research projects. Get a sneak peek at the livestock protection tools we'll be demonstrating in on-ranch field days this spring. We'll have information on a variety of topics, including livestock production, range and pasture management, ranch economics, and wildfire preparation. We'll also have schedules of upcoming workshops. And yes, there'll be snacks!

The UCCE office is located in DeWitt Center in North Auburn at 11477 E Avenue. Look for red and white "Farm Workshop" signs.
