

Exploring Trees with Children Resources

Here are some places to visit with children to explore trees:

Sonoma Valley Regional Parks (<https://parks.sonomacounty.ca.gov/visit/find-a-park/sonoma-valley-regional-park>) like Spring Lake Regional Park Environmental Discovery Center

LandPaths Grove of Old Trees in Occidental
<https://www.landpaths.org/grove-of-old-trees/>
17599 Fitzpatrick Ln, Occidental, CA
(707-544-7284)

Armstrong Redwoods State Natural Reserve in Guerneville
https://www.parks.ca.gov/?page_id=450
17000 Armstrong Woods Rd, Guerneville, CA
(707-869-2015)

Riverfront Regional Park in Healdsburg
<https://www.sonomacounty.com/outdoor-activities/riverfront-regional-park>
7821 Eastside Rd, Healdsburg, CA (707) 565-2041)

Guerneville River Park
<https://parks.sonomacounty.ca.gov/visit/find-a-park/guerneville-river-park>
13811 Drake Rd, Guerneville, CA
(707) 869-9184)

Children's Museum of Sonoma County in Santa Rosa
<https://www.cmosc.org/>
1835 W Steele Ln, Santa Rosa, CA (707) 546-4069

California Academy of Sciences, San Francisco - new tree exhibit
<https://www.calacademy.org/>
55 Music Concourse Dr, San Francisco, CA
(415) 379-8000

4th graders can get a free year pass for themselves and their families at selected State Parks (<https://www.parks.ca.gov/adventurepass> 800-444-7275)

November 2022