

LawnLESSness Thinking Beyond Turf

Presenter: Jim Brugger, CNPS Garden Ambassador—Designing native habitat landscapes for the Central Valley

SEPTEMBER
Saturday 14th
10:00 to Noon

- How can we use our home landscape to restore a piece of lost habitat?
- Why are Native plants important?
- Where do I start?
- The lawn is gone . . . Now what?
- What is the “Hydro-illogical Cycle” and how do we break it?

LOCATION: UC COOPERATIVE EXTENSION CLASSROOM
2145 Wardrobe Avenue, Merced

UPCOMING 2024
WORKSHOPS

OCTOBER 12th Backyard Mini-Farm
NOVEMBER 9th TBA

Master Gardeners are a University of California, Division of Agriculture and Natural Resources trained volunteer group within the University of California Cooperative Extension that seeks to extend research-based knowledge and information on home horticulture, pest management, and sustainable landscape practices to the residents of Merced County. Master Gardeners accomplish this through extension, informative outreach programs, and workshops.
